

2010 LASD CONFERENCE
MARCH 13, 14, 15, 2012

CENACLE RETREAT HOUSE
METAIRIE, LA

The Call to Conscious Living:
Spiritual Directors as Counter-Cultural Models
Presented by Robin and Easton Hebert

In our culture today, people—ourselves included—always seem to be rushing, over-stimulated, and distracted, seldom rooted in the present moment. Collectively, we live our lives far from the “contemplative now.”

As we journey with those seeking a deeper relationship with God, we often face the task of challenging Directees to become more mindful of modern-day patterns that block spiritual growth. As directors, we must, therefore, become aware of our own need to continually release the grip of our overactive culture. By reclaiming core values that keep us rooted in conscious living—Sabbath-keeping, balance, finding God in all things, conscious relationship, and prayer, of course—we grow in freedom and grace. Only then can we challenge others to do the same.

Join spiritual directors Robin and Easton Hebert as we work towards the goal of grounding ourselves ever more deeply in a rhythm that is dedicated to the care of the soul—our own, as well as those who are entrusted to our care.

Robin and Easton Hebert are spiritual directors and retreat leaders from Lafayette, LA, sharing their love of God, devotion to prayer, and passion for living a balanced lifestyle through parish and retreat ministry as well as the ministry of spiritual direction. Easton is an adjunct director at the Jesuit Spirituality Center in Grand Coteau and Robin serves at Our Lady of Wisdom Church and Catholic Student Center on the UL campus as marriage ministry coordinator. She has co-authored two books on spirituality: When Women Pray and When Wisdom Speaks.
